Voting Unanimous

5) Clerks report

- A further meeting between councillors and CWAC Highways had occurred on 30 September. Highways had agreed to provide costings for painting warning signs and lines on the road. The Chairman would pursue the issue but it was understood that the funds would be provided by Marbury ward councillors.
- The hedge at Bridge Farm corner had been cut.
- The issue of parking near Ms Caffery's property continued but the PCSO and highways were aware and would visit if Ms Caffery wished.
- A complaint had been made about the gun club. The Chairman would contact them about the permitted hours of operation.
- Councillors discussed ideas for the newsletter which included articles about the boat lift, Barnton library, new facilities in Marbury Park, filming near the boat lift etc
- The Chairman would ask British Telecom whether it was possible to remove the disused phonebox.

6) Correspondence

- Councillors noted numerous emails from CWAC
- The Clerk had received a Freedom of Information request regarding details of all contributions made to ChALC over the years. The information sought was not available.
